

East Side Learning Center

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS & DONORS

Increase the power of your dollars & volunteer hours through named Matching Gift & Volunteer programs at your work.

Not sure if your company participates?
Please check with your company Human Resources Department

Ways your company might donate to ESLC:

Matching Gift Dollar Donation Match

- Make a pledge/payment and complete application via online or paper requesting your company to match your donation. Note: Some companies will not match dollars only volunteer hours.

Employee Giving Programs via Payroll Deduction

- Through Payroll Deduction designations to East Side Learning Center are normally done in the fall for the next calendar year. Total pledge is allocated to East Side Learning Center and payments are deducted from payroll check. All tax deductible. Payments are normally issued quarterly by employer to us. No additional billing is forthcoming.

Employee Giving Program via Direct pledge payment to Company

- Some companies request employees to pay them directly so the non-profit can receive the dollar match. This is normally done via a credit card payment. In turn, the company will pay the donor's pledge and match the gift. Check with your human resources department for more details.

Dollars for Doers or Volunteer Hours Grant

- Volunteering at the East Side Learning Center can generate a grant from your employer for us. Amounts and hours required can vary per company guidelines. Volunteer service must be completed during standard calendar year and application submitted to your company per their requirements to qualify. Some companies will match hours or dollars or both.
